

Maranatha

The City Harmonic

Breathe
Breathe it in
Feel your heart beat again
Here we are, here I stand with you
To begin to be whole,
To belong, to be known
To believe, we become new

The promise of a kingdom come
The pow'r of sin by Christ undone for

Christ has come and Christ is coming
Rise and sing - Maranatha!
Rise all rise, the King is coming
So we sing: Maranatha, Kingdom Come!

Rise, take a hand
Leave our lines in the sand
Undivided we stand tall
For we sinners, a place
Round this table of saints
Bread and wine, signs of grace for all

The promise of a kingdom come
The pow'r of sin by Christ undone for

Christ has come and Christ is coming
Rise and sing - Maranatha!
Rise all rise, the King is coming
So we sing: Maranatha, Kingdom Come!

For the trenches we make of city streets
(Maranatha)
For the dark and the light at war in me
(Maranatha)
For the heavy of heart and the hanging on
(Maranatha)
For the widowed wife and the orphaned one
(Maranatha)
For the world He so loved, He gave the Son
(Maranatha)
Sing

Christ has come and Christ is coming
Rise and sing - Maranatha!
Rise all rise, the King is coming
So we sing: Maranatha, Kingdom Come!
