

Computers Rule the World (But God Is Still In Control)

The Clark Sisters

Computers got the upper hand
Something I don't understand
Flip a switch watch a start
You be just a next apart
Smarter quicker smarter faster
Punch a code get a answer
Feel in large look around (sorry the computers down)
Push a button pull a lever
Technical wiz super clever
High effcent low cost
Human slave mental thoughts
Build a gagit break a circuit
Doesn't even make it worth
Stop lady mr. listen to The Clark Sisters

O do you know have you been told computers are taking over the world
(computers rule the world but God is in control)

(computers rule the world)
God is still in control God is still in control of the universe

Do you hear what I say come heal the land today

Human beans can't compete brain powers are delete
Work is easy life is hard computers don believe in God
Auto mated atompherse not set for heaven but for hell computer for a president
Mac tauge apple too replacement for me and you
Doesn't eat lunch never rest personally I'm not impressed IBM commadore we do less they do more they do more we do nothin g
Armageddon just a button

Don't you delay do you hear what I say
