

In Blood

The Clarks

Something black out of the blue
Took their lives in front of you
Left went right it all went wrong
Faded out just like a song

Fallen angels fallen stars
Broken lives and broken cars
Through the tears after the fall
I guess the writing's on the wall

In blood
In blood

Nothing good will come of this
No one's touch and no one's kiss
Will bring them back will bring them home
Left in pieces like a phone

Fallen angels tell the truth
Broken bottles corner booth
Behind the wheel you made it fly
Can you look them in the eye

In blood
In blood
In blood
In blood

No pain no spirits in the sky
Just love eternal in your eyes

Everything is shattered now
We look for clues to why and how
Thoughts and prayers won't pay the bill
No one acts and no one will

Where will we be in twenty years
Our children's lives their hopes their fears
Stolen dreams and stolen plans
It's in your clothes it's on your hands

In blood
In blood
In blood
In blood
