Voices In The Mall

The Clientele

talking with your friends another night well I guess I'll love you when you're tired I'll love you when you're tired

& evening in the schoolrooms & the park since I failed to reason with my heart to reason with my heart

& now a watercolour night has drenched the birches & the black canal the voices in the mall

the longing of the voices in the mall back in nowhere safe back in nowhere now
