

Sleeping Alone

The Clicks

I know it's late
But I can't help the feeling
That you're wide awake
But I'm not on your mind

And I can't escape
As my heart keeps on reeling
Darling you're not sleeping alone tonight
I know you're not sleeping alone tonight

All of my friends
Tell me I should forget her
End this regret and stop wasting precious time
But I can't escape
When my heart rolls with thunder
Darling you're not sleeping alone tonight
I know you're not sleeping alone tonight

BRIDGE

I wanna cry, but there's no use crying
Would rather die if I can't feel you by my side
But darling you're gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
And our love has truly died
Truly died
Oh no, oh no, oh no

But darling you're gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
And our love has truly died
