

Down Again

The Cold Stares

Standing on the edge again
Walk me back off the ledge my friend
Oh, cause I'm a lonely man
With a hole in my heart that I just won't mend

Oh and I've been down
Down to the bottom and back down again, turn it around again
They said I'd come around, but the only solace that I found was going right back down, and now I'm down again

Forgotten how it feels to smile
Ain't hard to say that it has been awhile
Shadows seem to follow me, always feel their calling me, the hollow man inside of me

Oh and I've been down
Down to the bottom and back down again, turn it around again
They said I'd come around, but the only solace that I found was going right back down, and now I'm down again

Oh and I've been down
Down to the bottom and back down again, turn it around again
They said I'd come around, but the only solace that I found was going right back down, and now I'm down again
