

No Love In The City Anymore

The Cold Stares

Saw a man standing by the road today
He was holding up a sign saying, won't you pray?
'Cause the end days are coming, this world won't last
Not a soul paid attention when they drove past

We all take what we want
And we don't think about the costs
Our brothers and sisters are sleeping outdoors
There's no love in the city anymore

Around every corner, there's another crime
They line 'em up, they knock 'em down every time
And you can't hardly breathe the air downtown
And we're stepping over people laying on the ground

We all take what we want
And we don't think about the costs
Our brothers and sisters are sleeping outdoors
There's no love in the city anymore

We all take what we want
And we don't think about the costs
Our brothers and sisters are sleeping outdoors
There's no love in the city anymore
