

Time Waster

The Colourist

So lost and looking back
Overwhelmed with what we had
Now it's gone way too fast
The future has become the past

I'm through with you
Disconnected truth
I thought that I'd never give you up
Why would I stay pretending that we're okay?
Time wasted and I'm never looking back

I'm no longer what you wanted
And I've learned nothing from it
I'm no longer what you wanted
Time wasted and I'm never looking back

Careful plans, look where we're at
The hope we had, you cut in half
Get back up and take a chance
They stole our dreams, we took them back

You hid your face, gave us all a taste
The clocks all ran faster than we thought
Starry eyes been out before I turned king
Time wasted and I'm never looking back

I'm no longer what you wanted
And I've learned nothing from it
I'm no longer what you wanted
Time wasted and I'm never looking back

Never gonna be anything that you wanted
Never had a thrill, never gonna feel this way
Never gonna be anything that you wanted
Never had a thrill, never gonna feel this way again
Never gonna be anything that you wanted
Time wasted and I'm never looking back

I'm no longer what you wanted
And I've learned nothing from it
I'm no longer what you wanted
Time wasted and I'm never looking back

I'm no longer what you wanted
I'm no longer what you wanted
