Bye Bye Baby

The Commitments

Well, you know you took my heart and broke it apart
Why didn't I, baby, yeah, didn't I know from the start?
You know you took my love, threw it away
Now you're gonna want my love some day
Well, bye bye baby

Well I thought your love was oh so true
And you know me, baby, started lovin' you
You know you took my love, threw it away
Now you're gonna want my love some day
Well, bye bye baby

Your love was sweet as wine, any I know so
Don't come back runnin' or knockin' on my front door
Well you said that I was your only girl
And there was no other, yeah, in this whole wide world
You know you took my love, threw it away
Now you're gonna want my love some day
Well, bye bye baby

Bye bye baby, don't you know, oh
Bye bye baby, wo, don't need your love
Yeah yeah, I don't want you, baby
Bye bye baby, yeah, bye bye baby
