

Heartless

The Confession

I see you at the point of no return
(of no return)
Alone in a different world
What's the point of coward's lies?
There is no turning back.

Backing out was never an option because we're drawn,
tonight a coward's lie is exposed for what it's worth.

Growing up way too fast,
growing up way too fast.
Growing up.

You believe in nothing,
You never stood for something.
You believe in nothing,
Your life suffers to survive

You never stood for anything.

I will never forget,
I will never forget.
Because I am heartless.
Mother fucking heartless.

Growing up way too fast.
Growing up way too fast.

You believe in nothing,
You never stood for something.
You believe in nothing,
Your life suffers to survive.

You never stood for anything.

There was no turning back.
Backing out was never an option because we're drawn,
tonight a coward's lie is exposed for what it's worth.

(now it's time for a breakdown)
Fuck the life that you live, fuck everything you stand for.

I see you at the point of no return
(of no return)
Alone in a different world
What's the point of coward's lies?
There is no turning back.
(so alone)
