The Contortionist

The system is now free.
Witness our obsolescence, end sparks of life.
A new species can never fathom how quickly it will be extinct.

The system is now free from error.
The system revokes our viral form.
Silence becomes primary language.
Internal wave, undulate us home.

This system is now free from error.

Removed from the earth like a scourge with a delicate and yet powerful hand.

Idle boundaries allow admission to pull this world apart from the inside.

Equilibrium has been disturbed and the surface must collapse.
Compacted star, the only destination.
Unavoidable paradigm.

The radiant sun engraves its name.
Unavoidable paradigm.
