

Expatriate Blues

The Copyrights

I'm not home sick, I'm sick of home

Now I know when I'm back home I'll just be visiting
Now I know that my return won't be for long
When I'm gone this bedroom town just keeps on sleeping
The same sleep every year just like when I was here
I hate it with a smile, I miss it with a sneer
