

Keep the Change

I use my credit card to pay credit cards
I use another one to pay rent
I'm throwing nickles my student loans
And they haven't made a dent
I'm sitting more and moving less
Outgrowing all my clothes
And I'm making up outrageous lies
About what's going up my nose

I wouldn't change it if I could
But that's easy to say
I can't change it anyway

It's so easy to tell myself that
Accept failure or have a heart attack
