

Knee Deep

The Copyrights

knee deep in the streets do you have it in you?
padlocked chains wrapped around the doors of the venue and I'm starting to feel like I'm on the city's menu but I don't mind

standing on the sidewalk sweating through my collar as the sun is setting the buildings grow so much taller and the town where I'm from starts to seem a lot smaller but I don't mind, I don't mind I don't mind, I don't mind cause we're never out here alone we're never out here alone and all this time was it all for nothing?
