

The Ceiling's the Limit

The Copyrights

We're not hoping anymore for second last chances and if you have any bridges at all consider them burned
for pin point name drops and if you have any stories at all consider them told Well it's easier to live when you don't have much to give and your limit is the ceiling instead of the sky we're throwing it away with a smile on our face
