breaking hearts, breaking bones breaking into your home breaking arms, breaking legs follow orders, breaking heads meet me at the usual place no a hundred yards down the road just following orders kid I just do as I'm told so scream if you wanna I'm the only one that's gonna hear beg if you wanna

cry if you wanna
and I promise I won't tell walk into the boss' mansion make his funeral closed casket except for me and you not a dry eye in the room but the tears won't be sincere now these bullets justify the end hope the company is with me I'm through burying my friends
