

Grace, Don't Wait!

The Coronas

It's been too long since you sat up straight and wrote down something you know You wanna leave this life but you're gonna need somewhere to go You're digging a hole dear it's filled you up and now you're never quite sure where you stand 'I think you need a new plan'. Oh

What will you do for the summer' You've got to decide.
As long as you don't waste another here I don't mind Take off your make-up and break up 'cause you know it's safer when you're young free and single Grace, don't wait for the summer to live your life!... Oh

So find your space and climb up to somewhere you won't fall
They all know you'll be fine but you could have it all This is something you learn dear but will you look them up when you've found what you wanna say 'I think you'll blow them away' Oh

What will you do for the summer' You've got to decide.
As long as you don't waste another here I don't mind
Take off your make-up and break up 'cause you know it's safer when you're young free and single Grace, don't wait for the summer to live your life!... Oh

Oh, get up and leave this town.
It's the perfect place to let your grace come out'

What will you do for the summer' You've got to decide.
As long as you don't waste another here I don't mind Forget your make-up and break up 'cause you know it's safer when you're young free and single Grace, don't wait for the summer to live your life!... Oh

Oh, get up and leave this town
