

Silence That Scares Me Now

The Coronas

I can see the anger build in your eyes
You can see the panic grow behind mine
Okay I'll go, just let me explain one more time

I've tried to squeeze your hand but you pull away
Your arms are folded, your hair is hiding your face
Tell me now there is something that will amaze

Please hit me hard
'Cause it's the silence that scares me now
And as long
As you're still screaming at me
Yeah, it's the silence that makes me bleed

Two months of noise you'd think I'd be happy now
It's just a truth I have, I know how bad it sounds
Don't dismiss this please, we can still work it out

Just hit me hard
'Cause it's the silence that scares me now
And as long
As you're still screaming at me
Yeah, it's the silence that makes me bleed

And I don't know what you need
Is there part of you that still cares about me

Please hit me hard
'Cause it's the silence that scares me now
And as long
As you're still screaming at me
Yeah, it's the silence that makes me bleed

I don't want
Just hit me hard
Yeah, it's the silence that scares me now
And as long
As you're still screaming at me
Yeah, it's the silence that makes me bleed
