Time Stopped

The Coronas

Would you mind if I stayed for a while?
Is it safe for us?
Still afraid to touch
Is it so wrong that I'm glad to be here?
Waking up, the world's still messed up

And time stops
And almost everything 'til now
Didn't mean an awful lot
Seriously, what the fuck?
'Cause I'm not too sure of anything
Except you cheer me up
And I don't tell you enough

I'm not trying to convince myself
I'm not trying to convince myself
I'm not trying to convince myself at all
I'm gonna make it

But time stops
And almost everything 'til now
Didn't mean an awful lot
Seriously, what the fuck?
'Cause I'm not too sure of anything
Except you cheer me up
And I don't tell you enough

Time stops
And almost everything 'til now
Didn't mean an awful lot
Except the both of us

(I'm not trying to convince myself)
(I'm not trying to convince myself)
(I'm not trying to convince myself at all)
I'm gonna make it

Time stops
And almost everything 'til now
Didn't mean an awful lot
Except the both of us

I'm not trying to convince myself
I'm not trying to convince myself
I'm not trying to convince myself at all

At least I know I'm not
Too sure of anything
Except the two of us
And that's enough

I'm not trying to convince myself
I'm not trying to convince myself
I'm not trying to convince myself at all

Would you mind if I stay for a while?
Is it safe for us?

The world's still messed up
