

You say you're close behind but I want you to see
I want you to always be mine
I know they say you won't cry, but I'm thinking would you be thinking of me too this night
And I never stop and think before I speak
But you said you like that about me
So tell me more, bare your soul,
I want to keep it warm
Oh I want to keep you warm
And it's the small things that make me sure like how we'd happily spend hours on end without words
And I know I said too much too soon, still so much to do but so much to lose without you
And I never stop and think before I speak
But you said you like that about me
So tell me more, bare your soul,
I want to keep it warm
Oh I want to keep you warm
I want to keep it warm
You say you're close behind
but I want you to see
I want you to always be mine
And I never stop
