

Write Our Own Soundtrack

The Coronas

Oh my God, don't laugh
I think I'm freaking out again
That's okay, I'm sound again
If I prepared nothing to sing
I'll sing one that I always do
And I know you will sing [?]

'Cause we couldn't have slept for more than an hour
(Couldn't have slept for more than an hour)
And we didn't expect to after an hour
(Couldn't have slept for more than an hour)

Maybe we're rushing, messing it up
As we watch the TV with the sound turned off
Doesn't make a difference, we don't care enough about that
We can write our own soundtrack
Lock ourselves away within pretty silence
We don't need to listen, they don't realize
Only thing that matters is I always got your back
And we can write our own soundtrack

Oh my God, I'm stuck
Right between the melodies
Of the way I used to be
But you carry on like a tune
Or a song that lingers in an empty room
It's always there to comfort you

'Cause we couldn't have slept for more than an hour
(Couldn't have slept for more than an hour)
And we didn't expect to hear the alarms
(Couldn't have slept for more than an hour)

Maybe we're rushing, messing it up
As we watch the TV with the sound turned off
Doesn't make a difference, we don't care enough about that
We can write our own soundtrack
Lock ourselves away within pretty silence
We don't need to listen, they don't realize
Only thing that matters is I always got your back
And we can write our own soundtrack
We can write our own soundtrack
Oh

Maybe we're rushing, messing it up (maybe we're rushing)
As we watch the TV with the sound turned off (watch the TV, oh)
Doesn't make a difference, we don't care enough about that (doesn't even matter)
We can write our own soundtrack
Lock ourselves away within pretty silence (lock ourselves away)
We don't need to listen, they don't realize (we don't need to listen)
Only thing that matters is I always got your back (only thing that matters)
Is we can write our own soundtrack

Maybe we're rushing, messing it up
As we watch the TV with the sound turned off (watch the TV with the sound turned off)

Doesn't make a difference, we don't care enough about that
We can write our own soundtrack
Lock ourselves away within pretty silence
We don't need to listen, they don't realize (watch the TV with the sound turned off)
Only thing that matters is I always got your back (only thing that matters)
Is we can write our own soundtrack
