The Correspondents

Everybody gather 'round
It's time for me to show you down
So take my hand, I'll lead you where the roses line the circle stair
Step by step we're closer now
Velvet curtains, silent crowd
Welcome to the spot you're near Welcome all because we're...

Introduc'in' to you, the new bamboo
It's the old-time blues over something new
A little bit of something 'fore the fine drum few
Take your seats for the band to bloom

This designated starter's all we got to impress
You can be the judge if we digress
Deviate, falter or make you wait
We hope that we can satiate
