

Higher Ground

The Crane Wives

From where I'm standing
I can't get a line of sight on the future
Should I head for higher ground?

Something's happening
It's out of my hands
I gave up the truth and now I can't take it back
And I can feel the earth shaking underneath me
Feel these tectonic plates shifting
And I'm afraid of what I'll find in the rubble when it's done
I didn't wanna hurt anyone

The corvids are calling
Warning forest a predator's approaching
Am I in danger, or am I the threat?

Something's happening
This wasn't my plan
I gave up the truth and now I can't take it back
And I can feel the earth shaking underneath me
Feel these tectonic plates shifting
I'm afraid of what I'll find in the rubble when it's done
I didn't wanna hurt anyone
