

Know How

The Crane Wives

I am not brave, I am not brave
I keep my focus on what is safe
You drew a line, made up your mind
And now I'm struggling to realize

I gotta wrap my head around
What my heart is telling me
I've been trying to drown it out
Just because I know what I am
I am supposed to do now
Doesn't mean I know
Doesn't mean I know how

I am not brave, I am not brave
I blind my eyes to what won't stay
You kissed my mouth, you pushed me out
And now I'm struggling to free myself

I gotta wrap my head around
What my heart is telling me
I've been trying to drown it out
Just because I know what I am
I am supposed to do now
Doesn't mean I know
Doesn't mean I know how

I gotta wrap my head around
What my heart is telling me
I've been trying to drown it out
Just because I know what I am
I am supposed to do now
Doesn't mean I know
Doesn't mean I know how

I am not brave, I am not brave
I am not brave, I am not brave
