

Nothing At All

The Crane Wives

Happy is the man
Who wants for nothing
Happy is the liar
Happiness is itself desire
So long as the fire
Getting weak, contained

Do you ever want nothing at all
Do you ever want nothing at all
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do

Heart broken men long to feel nothing
To free themselves from strife
Handle pain
It doesn't define the man
It sure lends a hand
Getting measured in the sweeter parts of life

Do you ever feel nothing at all
Do you ever feel nothing at all
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do
I would not wish that on you

Do you ever feel nothing at all (Do you ever feel)
Do you ever want nothing at all
Do you ever feel nothing at all (Do you ever feel)
Do you ever want nothing at all
Do you ever feel nothing at all (Do you ever feel)
Do you ever want nothing at all
Do you ever feel nothing at all
