Secrets

The Crash

Will you understand what I cannot say?
Will you read my thoughts on and on again?
Will you feel this way more and more and more?
Now who do you love now or on the whole?

Hello. All I want is you, oh oh
Hey you, give it up, you cannot resist these secrets

So uneasily you and I will meet
Only secretly you and I will feel
Now who do you love now or on the whole?

Hello. All I want is you
Hey you, give it up, you cannot resist these secrets

Nobody should know what we should not do
Only secretly

Hello. All I want is you
Hey you, give yourself away, hey hey
Feel it, give it up, you cannot resist these secrets

Was it love that was here for a while?
Or just someone you knew before?
Did you see where it went?
Did it say what it was?
And could you hear what it said or whispered 'bout you and me?
