Long Way Down

The Creepshow

A darkened highway seemed like just the place tonight Thought I was such an easy target at first sight

Now all your plans have come undone Here's my advice boy you better think twice before you take my money and run IT'S A LONG WAY DOWN AND YOU'RE STARING AT THE BARREL OF A GUN!

You would take all I got I'm left for dead alone You leave me here to rot 'til vultures pick my bones

A sweet taste of your worst nightmare awake
I'll give you one last chance don't put your life at stake
Now take a look at this spanish twilight and say all your prayers cause this may be,
THE LAST BREATH YOU TAKE
