

No Tomorrow

The Crown

Later that night as I fell to my death
Leaving my body behind
Out of my mind into endless beyond
Into the other side
Lost in a dawning darkness
Down through the gate of the dream
Death without end
Night of no tomorrow
Night of no tomorrow
Alive under will
Break the surface again
Approaching the corpse of myself
Shivered and shook as my spirit returned
But I lost my heart in hell
Lost in a dawning darkness
Down through the gate of the dream
Death without end
Night of no tomorrow
Night of no tomorrow
Lost in a dawning darkness
Down through the gate of the dream
Death without end
Night without mercy
Death without end
Dawning darkness
No Tomorrow
Heart in hell
No Tomorrow
Approaching the corpse
No Tomorrow
Death without end
