

Hold On To Something

The Crystal Method

I feel pain from a distance
You bring light to my existence
You grow dark from a distance
We lose time in an instant

Hold on
Hold on
Ooh

When you feel it all alone
And you think I took too long
Don't worry, I'm coming, yeah
When you feel it all went wrong
And you're tired of being alone
I hope you hold on 'cause I'm coming

The darkness that haunts you
And the distance you feel
The voices that haunt you
Who will disappear if you're dead

Hold on (Hold on)
Hold on
If you hold, hold on

Taking you home
I'm taking you home
Taking you back home
