

In Blood

The Cult

I fell in a bathroom stall
Five a.m., on the tiled floor
Twisted night, the hooker smiles
When does it end? When will it end?

East coast to the west coast
Dark ally
Said I was a threat
Flash of the truth came flying

You seduced me, I came undone
Cut right through me, I came undone
I never knew that I was done
Bleed out, bleed out, bleed out, bleed out

I awoke wolf on my chest
Breathing in my face
She feed me from her breast
True to my own nature she said
When does it end? When will it end?

East coast to the west coast
Dark ally
Said I was a threat
Daggers in the night came shining

You seduced me, I came undone
Cut right through me, I came undone
I never knew that I was done
Bleed out, bleed out, bleed out, bleed out

Like the devil on the run
The hunter with his gun
Bleed out, bleed out

You seduced me, I came undone
Cut right through me, I came undone
I never knew that I was done
Bleed out, bleed out, bleed out, bleed out
