

It Doesn't Matter Anymore

The Cyrkle

It doesn't matter if you go or you stay
It doesn't matter at all
I made my mind up I'm going away

And there's, no use, cryin'
No use tellin' me your sorry now
It doesn't matter anymore, I know
I took you back before
But I'm all through forgivin' you

There must be someone
Who's gentle and kind
There must be someone who's true
And that's the kind of girl I'm going to find

And there's, no use, cryin'
No use you're tellin' me how much you've changed
It doesn't matter anymore, I know
I took you back before
But I'm all through
Forgivin' you, yeah

And there's, no use, cryin'
No use you're tellin' me how much you've changed
It doesn't matter anymore, I know
I took you back before
But I'm all through
Forgivin' you

I gotta find a love that's true
'Cause I'm all through forgivin' you
