I gotta full moon A smaller room than I need A candy store a sexy whore Yes I bleed A sifting sand and an electronic hand Yes I'm fine I've got a pissed of god a government shock Yes I'm blind And I fall Well I fall Well I fall Yeah I fall My mind's a raging blame A crying shame and I'm sad A city of sin a bottle of gin So dog-gone bad A cool reaction for the big attraction That's fine A pissed off god a government shock Well I'm blind And I fall Well I fall Well I fall Yeah I fall I'm a falling angel Falling down Be a falling angel Won't you come around? Don't be scared to follow It's no crime You're a falling angel Before your time
