

Shadow Evocation

The Damned

Hanging by a thread
Unwinding the miles ahead
Am I chasing ghosts
Ghost of the past
In my head
I tear into the night
Blurring the lines
The lines of my life
The devil's at my heels
Sweet angels whispering
In my ears

Faster than ever before (whispering in my ears)
Faster than ever before (whispering in my ears)
Faster than ever before, before, before

Edging to oblivion
Obscuring all that lies ahead
With one burning passion
To cheat the clock
And get ahead
I tear into the night
Blurring the lines
The lines of my life
The devil's at my heels
Sweet angels whispering
In my ears

Faster than ever before (whispering in my ears)
Faster than ever before (whispering in my ears)
Faster than ever before, before, before

Faster than ever before

Faster, faster, faster...

Faster than ever before
Faster than ever before (whispering in my ears)
Faster than ever before, before, before

Faster
