The Damnwells

I might stay up all night or fall in love
Or tell a lie
I could be the boy who ran away but I came back to see you one day

Here comes everyone
Here comes everyone
Here they come

You say I look like someone you know
Some scars
They are just for show
I never kissed a boy but I hit a girl
"You could get in big Big trouble," she said
"In the real world"

Here comes everyone
Here comes everyone
Here comes everyone
Here comes everyone
Here they come
