

Be Alright

The Dandy Warhols

I can see in your eyes
I can see your
A thousand points of light
And it's a wonderful sight
And I could die right now
And I wouldn't mind
I would be alright

And then I stop and wonder how and why it was
I lost my head and didn't make you mine
'Til the end of time
And as I sail from the coast I tell you why
And I'll be alright
We'll be alright

I can see in your eyes
I can see your
A thousand miles of light
It's a wonderful sight
And I could die right now
And I wouldn't mind
I would be alright
