

Genius

The Dandy Warhols

I'll take the blame
If I ever want to
For what my little brain
Has been through

I know to say
Things I never meant to
To seem a little sane
'cause that's what it takes

If I ever could win
If I ever could see
If I just could ever remember
To think about anything.

Darling, ya give me a rope and I'll hang myself
It doesn't take a genius to figure it out
Don't have to be fucking brilliant to see
I'm not as smart as I seem to be
I'm not as bright as I used to be
I'm not as sharp as I think I am.
I'm not as smart as I seem.
I'm not as bright as I seem.

Darling,
Darling
Darling
Darling, you give me a rope I'll hang myself
It doesn't take a genius to figure it out
Don't have to be fucking brilliant to see
I'm not as smart as I seem to be.
I'm not as bright as I used to be.
I'm not as sharp as I think I am.
I'm not as smart as I seem.
I'm not as bright as I seem.
