

Love Thyself

The Dandy Warhols

What if I told you
That I was in love myself?
But it was not with you
Whoa-oh, whoa-oh

And it wasn't you
It was me, I love myself
I am what I love, it was myself
Whoa-oh

But this is what I've longed for
Now I've opened up this door
And it's
Oh, yeah
This is what I wrote this song for
Just to thank you more
And I'm

Well, I cannot unsee
How are you were the night I said
That you were not for me
Whoa-oh, whoa-oh

Well, and it wasn't you
It was me, I love myself
I am what I love, it was myself
Whoa-oh

This is what I longed for
Now I've opened up this door
I'm all
And sometimes you have got to be strong
Just to get up off the floor
And go

What if I told you
That I was in love myself?
But it was not with you
Whoa-oh, whoa-oh

And it wasn't you
It was me, I love myself
I am what I love, it was myself
Whoa-oh

This is what I've longed for
Now I've opened up this door
And it's
Oh, yeah
This is what I wrote this song for
Just to thank you more
And I'm
Oh, yeah
