

(Tony, This Song Is Called) Lou Weed

The Dandy Warhols

Well, baby just look at Lou
Well, you do what you wanna do
And nothing less for you.
Well, whatever will get you through.

Now Satan will seem like a typical dude
When you notice him stayin' and staring at you
And I can see you got the heroin blues
Really, it looks so good on you.

Well, baby just look at Lou

I know women and women want to be seen (with you) But that's OK
too,
Those women really look good on you.
Now you always act so cool,
Like you're waiting for your man on Lexington Avenue.
And no one is there to hook up for you
So, whose place are you going to?

Well, baby just look at Lou
Now, baby just look at Lou
I said, baby just look at Lou
Yeah, baby look at Lou.
