

Elevation

The Dare

I think my teeth are falling out
Like in a dream of mine
But I haven't slept for days
And you're on my mind

And then I watch as the memory passes
See your face through these dark sunglasses
And what I once knew now is just ashes
Once knew how to be without

But there's no escaping, no escaping
No escaping love
And I feel like taking, feel like taking
Feel like taking drugs
When this elevation, elevation
Elevation's done
There's still no erasing
No erasing us

Sometimes I wonder
If you're really out there (Are you really?)
In Paris, or London
I still believe and I still care

Thought I saw you last week on the Avenue
These people try to tell me that I imagined you
Got a head full of shit so it might be true
Well baby, do you?
Baby, do you?

'Cause there's no escaping, no escaping
No escaping love
And I feel like taking, feel like taking
Feel like taking drugs
When this elevation, elevation
Elevation's done
There's still no erasing
No erasing us

When this elevation, elevation
Elevation's done
When this elevation
Elevation's done
When this elevation, elevation
Elevation's done
There's still no erasing
No erasing us
