

Open Up

The Dare

Check

It's just rock 'n' roll, you won't die (Die)
You can't spend your whole life inside (Oh no)
Just take my hand, I'll take away the pain
I'm gonna grab the third rail on a subway train

Just move your body like a tambourine
Put sixteen bullets in your magazine
You've got three different ways just to stop this night
You've got one more chance just to make it right

You gotta (Open up your eyes, open your arms)
(Open your legs, just shiny)
Just open up
(Open up your eyes, open your arms)
(Open your legs, just shiny)
Just open up

Woo

Free your mind, and your ass will follow (Yeah)
Free your eyes, and you might get laid (Oh, oh)
I know it might be hard to swallow
But it's much, much better once you get a taste (Come on)

(Open up your eyes, open your arms)
(Open your legs, just shiny)
Just open up
(Open up your eyes, open your arms)
(Open your legs, just shiny)
Just open up

Yeah

La-La-La-la

Ha

La-La-La-la

Just open up

Just open up

Just open up

Just open up

Kick down the doors (Doors), it's all yours (Yours)
And invite anyone, that's for sure
Do what you want, they don't know
And they'll never like you, so

Open up your eyes, open your arms
Open your legs, just shiny
Open up your eyes, open your arms
Open your legs, just open up
