You Will Learn

The Dark Element

You must pay any price and
You must bear any burden
Now that you're here let me teach you
A lesson in life

Your every night is a fight for survival
To pay any price, to bear any burden
Now that you're here let me teach you
A lesson in love

You must crawl before you learn to walk
But you wouldn't have it any other way

You will learn what to burn, what to yearn
And who to keep, who to leave
You will learn when to turn
When to run and when to hide, when to fight

You will learn what to fix, what to break
And who to love, who to hate
You will learn what you are
It will hurt but you will learn, you will learn

Life is not fair and all heart's don't break even Wounds don't heal, the taste won't grow sweeter
Now that you're here let me teach you
A lesson in pain

You will fall before you're standing tall
But you would not have it any other way

You will learn what to burn, what to yearn
And who to keep, who to leave
You will learn when to turn
When to run and when to hide, when to fight

You will learn what to fix, what to break
And who to love, who to hate
You will learn what you are
It will hurt but you will learn, you will learn
