

I let you see the bright lights
Then you walked away
But darlin', if you change you mind
You know just where I stay

At thirty-four, oh-six 81st Street
That's your home

You wouldn't listen
To the warnin' that I gave
But darlin' when you've had enough
You know just where I'll stay

At thirty-four, oh-six 81st Street
That's your home

I thought that I meant more to you
Than boss cars and fancy limousines
I'm sure that I'll mean more to you
When you find out what they mean

Don't worry if I'll love
You know I'll feel the same
Just say you'll come back
You know just where I'll stay

At thirty-four, oh-six 81st Street
That's your home

I see you walkin' by me
A tear falls from my eye
And when I think about you
I just break down and cry

At thirty-four, oh-six 81st Street
That's your home

At thirty-four, oh-six 81st Street
That's your home
