

Break Down and Cry

The Dave Clark Five

You said I was the man
Yes, the man of your dream
You said I was ev'rything
That your man could be

And you made me feel so wonderful
Yes you did, for real just-a real
And you told me you had everything
That you couldn't ask for anythin' more

I'm gonna break down and cry
Break down and cry
Break down and die
Over you

Well, I and went and gave you ev'rything
Yes, ev'rything so said you need
But now, you go and tell me
Oh, you not all that you seemed

And you tell me you don't need me
And your
Please, why don't you stop and think about it, girl
'Cause you're gonna cause me so much pain

I'm gonna break down and cry
Break down and cry
Break down and die
Over you
