I Need You I Love You

The Dave Clark Five

I never thought you'd go and leave me all by myself.
I never thought you'd go and leave me here on the shelf.
You hear me talkin'?
But who ever thought you need me?
Here I am on my bended knees.
Cause I need you, I love you,
It's you who I want to please.
Oh yeah!

I know I hurt you so, can't you give me just one more chance?
All the girls will give the eye whenever we went to a dance.
I thought I was so good making you feel so blue.
But now I need you, I love you.
I neven thought I'd do harm to you.

But now I know (yes, now I know)
I really need you so (I need you so).
Please say you'll take me back again
When the pain was gone,
Well don't you know now?

This day I'll promise you, I'll never be untrue,
No matter what others may say, or others may do.
I'm gonna run up to you every night

And make sure that everything's right.
Cause I need you, I love you,
I want you for the rest of my life.

But now I know (yes, now I know)
I really need you so (I need you so).
Please say you'll take me back again
When the pain was gone,
Well don't you know now?

This day I'll promise you, I'll never be untrue,
No matter what others may say, or others may do.
I'm gonna run up to you every night
And make sure that everything's right.
Cause I need you, I love you,
I want you for the rest of,
I need you, I love you,
I want you for the rest of,
I need you, I love you,
I want you for the rest of my life.
