

It's Not True

The Dave Clark Five

Oh, it's not true (It's not true)
That you're breakin' my heart (That you're breakin' my heart)
'Cause I haven't been blue (Haven't been blue)
Since our love fell apart (Since our love fell apart)
And so I'm tellin' you
That since I've been free
I've been as happy
As a bird in a tree

But now I'm longin' (Now I'm longin')
To see if it's true (To see if it's true)
The only person you've hurt (Hurt)
Ah, is only you (Is only you)
You sit at home each night
Waitin' for me to call
But you know that I won't
It's against my rule

But if you really want me back again
Ah, sit right down and pick up the phone
It doesn't take much to store your pride
And you'll never be alone

So remember these words (Remember these words)
Ah, that I say (That I say)
No, there's no hurryin' over (Hurryin' over)
And set me the pace (Set me the pace)
People they keep sayin'
Ah, that I'm blue
But if you think I'm crawlin' back
Baby, it's not true

Ah, baby, it's not true
Wah, baby, it's not true
