

Little Bit Strong

The Dave Clark Five

Oh well, I saw you with another man
As you was passin' by
I pretended not to see
I thought that I would die
Only yesterday you told me
We was goin' strong

Well, ain't that a little bit
A little bit strong?

Well, you said that you loved me
And would never, ever part
And now I find I'm standin' here
Left with a broken heart
I thought that your love would last
Right 'til the very end

Well, ain't that a little bit
A little bit strong?

Oh well, I thought you were in love with me
Just a little bit
Thought would never end like this
But oh, how wrong can you be?

You said that you loved me
And would never, ever part
And now I find I'm standin' here
I thought that your love would last
Right 'til the very end

Well, ain't that a little bit
Little bit strong?
Ain't that a little bit
A little bit strong?
A little bit strong?
