

Picture of You

The Dave Clark Five

I closed my eyes tonight
And saw a picture of you
Things that once were bright
Are now a deep shade of blue

Things have changed
May be the reason why
My picture of you
Is starting to cry

Just today we seemed
So far apart
And there's an aching
Deep inside my heart

'Cause things have changed
Could be the reason why
My picture of you
Is starting to cry

Yes, things have changed
I know the reason why
My picture of you
Is starting to cry
