

You Know You're Lying

The Dave Clark Five

You said you needed me
More than any other thing
You said you wanted me
And you'd wear my ring

But now I know you're lyin'
And you don't care at all
Yes, I know you're lyin'
And you're makin' a fool out of me

You said you needed love
So I gave you my all
But you didn't need love
You just wanted my soul

But now I know you're lyin'
And you don't care at all
Yes, I know you're lyin'
And you're makin' a fool out of me

I should have realized
When you told me he loved you
Something was wrong
Somewhere
