

Lightforms

The Daysleepers

Ignites the lights and moves the spaces
All around you

It weaves a thread of light straight through you
To show me who you are

This is the gravity that holds you
Now you're weightless

In turn our bodies move in motion
A light for all to see

I'm letting go... of all these things
I'm letting go...

Shake the ground
