

Never Say When

The dB's

Words and deeds, the same as
Wants and needs, the same as
Begs and pleads for her
To leave the great unknown alone but
Who am I to say what
Looks like a destination's
Little more than just another
Wide place in the road ahead
If I were in her shoes instead

If you want this love then
Say it again
I can't enough so
Never say when
If you want my love then
Say it, say it again

Words indeed can never
Say what a heart intends or
Say what the mind pretends
To be the truth or something like it but
My short fuse and my
Attempts not to lose so much
Adds fuel to the flame
I will remain the same, consumed by fire
Do you mind if I inquire

If you want this love then
Say it again
I can't enough so
Never say when
If you want my love then
Say it, say it again

(Ah, say it) say it again
(Ah, say it) say it again
(Ah, say it) say it, say it again

Don't despair
You'll just end up in the air somewhere
Or fall right where we stand as if it was planned
Or, well, at least inspired
Do you mind if I inquire

If you want this love
If you want this love
If you want my love
Say it again

If you want this love then
Say it again
I can't enough so
Never say when
Say it, say it again
Oh, say it again
